

1. MW and M31 will have two close encounters before the two galaxies merge together.
2. When the separation of the galaxies is at a minimum the relative velocity is at its maximum. This makes sense since the galaxies should decelerate once they pass each other.
3. MW and M31 should merge between 6 and 7 Gyrs.